

CUT SOUTH'S VOICE IN CONVENTIONS

Senator Scott Proposes to Limit Power of Southern Office-holders.

TAFT, LOSING GRIP IN OHIO

Times-Dispatch Bureau, Munsey Building, Washington, D. C., Nov. 25.—The ill-concealed influence of the administration is reflected just now in that unflattering barometer the Foraker forces. The Southern office-holders, who number no small part of Ohio's quota in government and other circles, are at a loss as to what to do. One thing that well pleased them was that said by C. H. Bryson, postmaster at Athens, Governor's old town, and in Vory's district (Vory being Taft's manager), when the Athens man emerged from the White House to-day.

"Taft is fast losing grip in Ohio, and Senator Foraker is rapidly coming to the front. There is a sure thing about it. Just how it will go cannot now be guessed at. If it keeps up, Taft cannot get the delegates from the State and there will be a split that will make Ohio dangerous ground for the Republicans in November next. I am sure of it. A compromise may be agreed upon, but it does not look that way to me."

Mr. Bryson was asked who was making suggestions of compromise. He said to this correspondent: "They came from the Taft people and administration people. The Foraker forces are not out hunting compromise."

And this was said by a postmaster still holding on, after he had come from the White House.

Cash Power of Office-holders. Another thing that should be interesting to Southern Republicans came in a statement to-day from Senator N. B. Scott, of West Virginia, who is one of the veteran members of the Republican National Committee. Senator Scott sees the large handwriting on the wall against the administration in the clamor of friends of other candidates than Roosevelt about Southern office-holders. Southern States being permitted to be a formidable factor in the choice of Republican candidates for President.

"Away back in 1892 I tried to get corrected what I thought was an impression and a wrong on the Northern States, which furnished the electoral votes that elected Republican Presidents."

Then the Senator gave instances of small Republican votes in Southern States whose representation in the convention was equal to that of Northern States, which furnished enormous Republican majorities.

"I shall advocate," said Senator Scott, "that every State shall have at least four delegates in the national convention, but beyond that their representation shall be based upon the number of actual votes cast by the party in that State. We are confronted in every convention by hundreds of officeholders of the South, who can do nothing for us in the election. Senator Scott said that out loud, and it is not the only Republican prominence talking that way just now with unusual vehemence."

NEW RATES IN ALABAMA

Railways Promulgate Order as Result of Recent Agreement.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., November 25.—An order was made to-day by President Henderson, of the Alabama Railroad Commission, instructing the Southern and its allied lines and other railroads that have "come in" to enforce the new rates. The order, which is in accordance with the agreement reached recently by Governor Comer, such rates to become effective December 1, 1907.

NO MONEY; PRISONER FREE

California Authorities Fail to Send for Man Awaiting Trial.

NEW ORLEANS, La., November 25.—Scarcely of the excuses which the police at Los Angeles, Cal., to-day offer to the fact that they are not sending for a prisoner, who has been held here for several weeks at the request of the California authorities. The prisoner, C. M. Barkley, was arrested here on the charge of uttering fraudulent checks. Barkley, who is said to be the son of a wealthy Californian, is also wanted by the police at Aguascalientes on charges of uttering bad checks.

GIRL CALLED AND KILLED

Young Charlotte Woman Goes to Door and Is Shot Down.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., November 25.—Ella Pryor, an eighteen-year-old white girl living with her mother Mrs. Neely Pryor, near Gilead Church, was called out of the residence to-night and shot to death by an unknown person. The tragedy took place about midnight. A few minutes before the gun fired some one knocked on the door, and one of the smaller girls of the family went to the door, but saw no one. Ella was called by her sister, and when she reached the door was fired on from the road and instantly killed. A posse is scouring the woods for the assassin. At a late hour the guilty party had not been apprehended.

MARSHAL SHOT; MAY DIE

Federal Officer Was Trying to Arrest a Man at Time.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., November 25.—Deputy United States Marshal Joseph Draper was shot and perhaps fatally wounded in the home of John Mitchell, a man he had arrested on a Federal warrant. Mitchell was the deputy with a knife. Pulling his pistol, Draper fired the only bullet he had in his weapon, wounding his prisoner in one hand. Mitchell called to his wife to hand him his gun and emptied it into the chest of the deputy. Mitchell and his wife escaped quickly in the direction of the North Carolina mountains.

WILL SOON RESUME PAYMENT IN CASH

Assurances Given in Washington That Banks in Large Cities Will Soon Pay in Money.

SUBSCRIBE FOR CERTIFICATES

WASHINGTON, November 25.—A more confident tone in regard to the success of the new loans prevailed at the Treasury department to-day than at any time since the announcement of the loans a week ago. The visits of Mr. Morgan on Friday and Saturday were followed to-day by a visit from Mr. James B. Forgan, president of the National Bank of Chicago. Mr. Forgan said to the Treasury Secretary, Cortelyou, and Treasurer, Treat, and expressed his belief that the banks throughout the country would soon be in a position to resume cash payments.

The subject is of peculiar interest to the Treasury officials, because for nearly a month government receipts have been declining as a direct result of the scarcity of currency.

Distillers, brewers and others who are required to purchase internal revenue stamps, have not been able to secure currency in sufficient quantities from the banks with which to purchase these stamps, and as the collectors are not allowed under the law to receive certificates, checks or anything but lawful money, except at their personal risk, the result has been that even a sufficient amount of stamps to cover immediate needs has been difficult to obtain.

Insist Upon Cash. The government is insisting that the banks shall, as soon as possible, meet the demands for currency in this respect. There seems to be a general desire among the bankers in New York, Chicago and other sub-treasury cities and financial centers to resume currency payments at the earliest possible moment, and Mr. Forgan's visit was made with a view of learning the views of the Treasury officials on this particular subject. Mr. Forgan represented that the Chicago banks would be able to resume upon an understanding with the banks in other cities within the next week or ten days at the latest.

It is believed among the Treasury officials that a complete understanding will be arrived at between the banks in New York, Chicago, St. Louis, New Orleans and Cincinnati, by which there will be a general resumption of currency payments, possibly before the close of the present week. New York and Chicago are making daily shipments of large sums to the crop-moving centers of the West and South, and it is confidently believed that these shipments will be continued in increased amounts until normal conditions are reached.

Buying the Certificates. In addition to the discussion of cash resumption Mr. Morgan left tangible evidence of his visit in a subscription by the Chicago clearing-house bank for $2,500,000 of the new certificates. The amount of these certificates are steadily coming to the Treasury as security for bank note circulation. These represent allotments made by Secretary Cortelyou about the middle of last week, since several days are required to complete the circuit of the allotments, and the banks are required to return to the Treasury as security for circulation. Those certificates which are being used to secure circulation are required to be registered instead of payable to bearer, as are those where registration is not asked. Subscriptions for the Panama 3 per cent bonds are also arriving in large numbers.

REVIVAL WEEK IN MANY CHURCHES

Distinguished Visiting Ministers Preaching to Number of Richmond Congregations.

EPISCOPAL WEEK OF PRAYER

Unusual interest is being manifested throughout the city in special religious services, many denominations observing this as revival week with series of meetings. In addition to the Thanksgiving Day exercises, which all churches will observe on Thursday, twelve Baptist churches in the city are holding revivals during this week, many of them with distinguished visitors assisting in the preaching. Special services are being held by the Episcopalians, a number of meetings have been arranged in Methodist churches in connection with the departure of their pastors, and a series of sermons are being preached by the Rev. Ora S. Gray, of Massachusetts, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Reports from the services held last night were uniformly encouraging in character, many pastors reporting a large attendance and a number of conversions.

In Baptist Churches. Services at the First Baptist Church are now in their second week, and were attended last night by a very large congregation. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. McDaniel, is preaching each evening this week in his own pulpit. The sermons are attracting an unusually large number of young men.

At Venable Street Baptist Church the Rev. Dr. P. H. Martin preached last night for the pastor, the Rev. C. E. Stuart, and there were fifteen conversions, making a total of about fifty during this series.

At Calvary Baptist Church the Rev. E. Pendleton Jones, D. D., of Hampton, Va., one of the best known preachers in the Baptist denomination, is assisting the Rev. Dr. Ryland Knight and preaching each evening this week. To-night there will be special music. Mr. Haddon Watkins will sing.

Owing to a delay in a Southern Railway train, the Rev. W. W. Landrum, D. D., of Atlanta, who was expected to preach at the Second Baptist Church last night, did not arrive at the church until just as the service was being concluded. The Rev. Dr. Ramsey, pastor of Grace Street Baptist Church, preached to a large congregation, and much interest was manifested. Dr. Landrum will preach at the Second Church each day this week at 12 and 8 P. M., except Thursday, when there will be a joint Thanksgiving service in this church at 11 A. M.

The special religious services to be held at Immanuel Baptist Church for the next week or two opened most auspiciously last night. There was a large congregation and deep interest was manifested. The Rev. Percy C. Elsom, of Raleigh, who is to preach throughout the services, was delayed in arriving by a belated train, and only got to the church in time to close the service. In his absence the Rev. Mr. Goodwin preached an exceptionally fine sermon appropriate to the opening of the meeting. Mr. Elsom will preach to-night and through the week.

Y. M. C. A. Services. The Rev. W. S. Dorset at Leigh Street Church is being assisted by the Rev. Dr. W. C. Taylor, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Petersburg, Va. The attendance each day of the series of meetings was very impressive. One conversion followed the sermon and others expressed interest in the subject.

The Rev. Mr. Gray, who is conducting special meetings in Richmond under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., spoke last night at Broad Street Methodist Church to a large congregation. Mr. Gray will preach to-night at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, when his subject will be "The Man Who Risked It."

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, which will speak at Broad Street Church, on Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

Episcopal Services. The General Convention of the Episcopal Church at its recent meeting in this city set aside this week as a week of prayer for men, in accordance with the resolution of the first meeting of a series was conducted last night by the Rev. W. Forsyth at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The attendance was large. The prayer service was preceded by an able and instructive address from Mr. Forsyth.

Other services will be held at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, corner of Foushee and Main Streets, Wednesday night, at St. John's Episcopal Church, on Madison Street, Thursday night, Holy Trinity Church.

On Friday night the annual corporate communion of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew for Henrico parish will be held at St. Mark's Church, corner of First and Main Streets, and will be held by the Rev. Robert Strange, Bishop of East Carolina. All men and boys especially welcomed at these services.

"3. Assuming all these facts to be true, what do you say as to whether, when the fatal shot was fired, the patient was sane or insane?"

The statement of the case was read from type in a copy prepared by Attorney George Hoyer, and was carefully presented by Judge Pendergast. Bradley's name was not mentioned, but all of the facts were given as applying to a woman thirty-five years of age, which is the age of Mrs. Bradley.

DIPLOMAT TURNS ON GAS

Cuban Despondent Over Recent Indecision, Almost Taken Life.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 25.—R. M. Bomballer, acting chancellor of the Cuban legation here, was tonight found in his apartments with a gas pipe in his mouth, and was taken to a hospital, where his condition was said to be serious. He left two notes, one of which was addressed to the public and read: "Good-bye, everyone. I am going to leave this world because I have not the courage to endure the present situation. I was addressed to Senator Don Arturo Padua, charge d'affaires of the Cuban legation."

Calls on President. WASHINGTON, D. C., November 25.—Ex-Governor Duncan C. Heyward, of North Carolina, had an audience with President Roosevelt to-day, and on leaving Mr. Heyward said that his call was merely to pay his respects.

Cleveland Had Indigestion. PRINCETON, N. J., November 25.—It was declared at the residence of Grover Cleveland to-day that the report of his illness was exaggerated, and that he had been suffering only from an attack of indigestion, from which he had completely recovered this morning.

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Son of Sergeant Saunders Candidate for Place as Page in Coming Legislature.

LITTLE GIRL BITTEN BY DOG

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

John Saunders, eldest son of City Sergeant J. G. Saunders, is a candidate for the position of page at the coming session of the Legislature, and it is highly probable that he will be selected.

For more than twenty-five years Manchester has not had a page, and, though, during Mr. D. L. Toney's last term in the House, he asked for one, he was defeated.

Young Saunders is a bright boy, and is well qualified for the place. His father has been an active Democrat and always worked vigorously for the party interests.

Cases Postponed. Owing to the sickness of J. H. Cogbill, charged with assaulting Motorman Neal, his case and the cases of Herbert Moser, Jack Royall, David Cole, George Cole and Eldridge Blinford, all colored, were postponed yesterday until to-morrow morning.

The case was called promptly in the Corporation Court, but Cogbill, who is ill, appeared in court, but stated that he was too sick to stand trial.

Commonwealth's Attorney Page was willing for the case to go over, but he had as a witness Motorman Fugua, who is now living in Pittsburg, and he asked, therefore, that the hearing not be continued until the next term of court. Cogbill is being represented by Mr. H. M. Smith.

Police Court Docket. Things broke out fresh in the Police Department on Saturday night and Mayor Maurice yesterday morning had a lengthy docket. Chris Jones and Jim Mahan engaged in a fight and each paid $2.50 and costs.

Peter Walker, Jim Mahanah, Joe Luth and Harry Stanhope, all glass-blowers, got into a general mix-up, and for a time the fight went fast and furious. Three of them were fined $2.50 each by the Mayor, and Walker was made to pay $5 and costs.

Seven colored "crackers" were summoned before the court, and only four of them appeared. Each was fined $2.50 and costs, and all payments were issued for the other three.

Henry Dickerson, a twelve-year-old white boy, was up on the charge of being a vagrant. The boy told a pitiful story, and the Mayor held him until some one might apply to give him a home.

J. S. Bykes was before the court on the charge of allowing eight cows to run at large, in violation of the ordinance. He was fined $2.50 and costs. Claude Jones was charged with being drunk. The Mayor fined him $5 and costs, and all payments were issued for the other three.

Personal and Briefs. Miss Zuline DuVal, the daughter of Mr. Emmett DuVal, was bitten yesterday afternoon by a pet dog belonging to Mr. F. DuVal. The little girl was taken to Dr. Merchant, and her wound was cauterized.

Stonewall Jackson Aerie, F. O. Eagles, will hold an important meeting to-night, at which time the officers for the year will be elected.

The supper, which was to be given on Thursday night at St. Anthony's Hall by the ladies of St. Anthony's Aid Society, has been postponed. The date of the supper will be announced later.

The Buildings and Lands Committee has been called to meet on Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

A suit of ejectment has been filed in the Corporation Court against Mrs. Martha I. Davis, who recently purchased a house and lot from her late husband, and from whom the defendant claims to have been evicted.

Through an error in the filing of the cuts the picture of Mr. Joseph E. Davidson appeared Sunday over the name of Mr. J. B. Rudd. The cut of Mr. Davidson had been placed in the envelope in which Mr. Rudd's cut should have been filed.

CROAKER HITS TREASURY
As "Poor Irish Tenant" He Borrows Money to Buy a Fine Farm.

DUBLIN, IRELAND, November 25.—Richard Croaker's latest achievement proves again that he knows the value of money.

The former Tammany boss has become a tenant-purchaser under the Irish land act of 1903. The land commission has advanced $25,000 to Mr. Croaker to pay for a farm, adjoining his fine estate at Stollagen. He has rented the farm from Lord Caryle.

To prove that Mr. Croaker ranks with a Rotherchild or a Morgan, it should be stated that the $25,000 lent by the land commission will be repaid, with 3½ per cent, interest, in diminishing installments extending over sixty-eight years.

When Croaker first requested the loan it was refused. Then he appeared before the land commission and made an explanation.

"You gentlemen are treating me unfairly," he told the commissioners. "You think I am a millionaire which people say I am. I tell you I am not a millionaire. I am as much entitled to the benefits of this act as any other tenant in all Ireland."

So Mr. Croaker has done a fine and legitimate stroke of business at the expense of the British exchequer. But much surprise is expressed that an alien can become a purchaser under an act which was passed for the relief of poor Irish tenants.

YOKUM LUNCHES WITH PRESIDENT AT WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON, D. C., November 25.—Mr. B. F. Yokum, chairman of the executive committee of the Rock Island lines, luncheon with the President to-day, but had nothing to say in connection with his visit here. In the afternoon he called on the Interstate Commerce Commissioners.

OBITUARY
Mrs. Sarah E. Pleasant.
After a lingering illness, Mrs. Sarah E. Pleasant died at 10 o'clock this morning at her residence, No. 2313 East Franklin Street. She was the widow of Captain James P. Pleasant, a constant member of the police force of Richmond. She was in the fifty-fifth year of her age. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

John A. Jennette.
[Special to the Times-Dispatch.]
SOUTH BOSTON, Va., November 25.—Mr. John A. Jennette, an aged and highly esteemed citizen of South of Dan, died at his home last night, after a brief illness, in the eighty-second year of his age.

Mr. Jennette was a native of Halifax county, where he resided during his entire life, and was an active participant in all public matters looking to the interest of his county and State. He was for perhaps a half a century a constant member of the Baptist Church, and was a brother of the late Rev. D. B. Jennette, a noted minister of his day.

He is survived by his widow and a nephew, Captain J. L. Jennette, of Kernersville, Mo. He was well known here.

The burial took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Oakridge cemetery, near this place.

Mrs. E. V. Hensell.
[Special to the Times-Dispatch.]
WINCHESTER, Va., November 25.—After a lingering illness of locomotor ataxia, Mrs. Ellimial Virginia Hensell, widow of Charles W. Hensell, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edmund Smith, at Stephens City, this county, to-day, aged sixty-eight years. This was the first anniversary of her husband's funeral.

Mrs. Hensell was Miss Pierce, member of an old and prominent Clarke family, and was an active participant in all public matters looking to the interest of her county and State. She was for perhaps a half a century a constant member of the Baptist Church, and was a brother of the late Rev. D. B. Jennette, a noted minister of his day.

He is survived by his widow and a nephew, Captain J. L. Jennette, of Kernersville, Mo. He was well known here.

The burial took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Oakridge cemetery, near this place.

Given Minor Assignments.
It is the usual practice of the Speaker to regard a State as entitled to a certain number of seats on assignments, and to keep this ratio up from one Congress to another. But Virginia has not been given a single place commensurate with its size and population.

Way and Means, Appropriations, and Grounds. Virginia has none. Mississippi has Ways and Means, Rivers and Harbors, and Public Buildings and Grounds. Georgia has Appropriations and Grounds. Virginia has none. Mississippi has Ways and Means, Rivers and Harbors, and Public Buildings and Grounds. In short, there is not a single Democratic State, except Virginia, which has not

IGNORE VIRGINIA ON COMMITTEES

Democratic Leader Williams Is Criticized for His Discrimination.

HE WILL BE LEADER AGAIN

Times-Dispatch Bureau, Munsey Building, Washington, D. C., Nov. 25.

There is not much doing yet among the Democrats over committee memberships in the Sixtieth Congress. John Sharp Williams will almost certainly be the minority leader. But there is enough uncertainty about the outcome of the minority leadership contest to prevent any one from making up the minority membership of the House committees in advance. Speaker Cannon has gone into executive session with himself over the Republican assignments, but will again allow the Democratic leader to name the minority members. This is something that no other Speaker ever did. They have taken the responsibility of making up the committees.

Minority Leader Williams was tendered the job by "Uncle Joe," and took it. One of his greatest sources of weakness as a leader was the acceptance of that prerogative. It was impossible for him to give everybody what was wanted or what he felt entitled to, and the awareness that resulted was but the beginning of troublesome times.

How Virginia Suffered.
That Virginia has lost a great deal no one who is acquainted with the situation can doubt. With the death of Major Oley, of the Sixth District, the Virginia place on Public Buildings and Grounds was lost, and no assignment was given in its stead which would have been as good as a Republican State. The year following Representative Williams decided that he did not want Representative Swanson on the Virginia place on Post-Office and Post Roads. Mr. Swanson had been the most influential minority member of the committee, and got more consideration for Southern measures than any other member at that time or since, but Mr. Williams wanted his job and lost it.

Virginia did not get a position to take the place of that one at all. By all the unwritten law of procedure in such cases Representative Hay should have gone on the Appropriations Committee, but Mr. Williams said that he wanted to take Representative Underwood off of Ways and Means and place him on Appropriations. But the very next session he was dropped back on Ways and Means and failed to appoint Hay in his stead. When Mr. Swanson resigned from Congress, Virginia's place on the Appropriations Committee was vacant. This position affects the tobacco interests and was important to Virginia, and it was the death of Representative Rixey, a native Virginian, that made it so.

Mr. Williams was Miss Pierce, member of an old and prominent Clarke family, and was an active participant in all public matters looking to the interest of her county and State. He was for perhaps a half a century a constant member of the Baptist Church, and was a brother of the late Rev. D. B. Jennette, a noted minister of his day.
